Further and more serious trouble has broken out among the members of the army service at Chatham. A number of sets of harness were hacked to pieces to-day. Three of the leaders of the mutiny have deserted.

Otto J. Klotz, topographer to the Department of the Interior, arrived in Ottawa this morning from Prince Albert, Northwest, leaving there on the 6th, and arriving in Ottawa on the 11th, having made the trip in five days. This phenomenally fast time is accounted for by the fact that he took the newly completed Regina & Long Lake railway to connect with the C.P.R. The rails of this road have been laid twelve miles north of Duck Lake, and grading has been done to within one mile of Prince Albert. The crops in the Northwest, he says, are looking excellent. Mr. Klotz says that Ladago (Kuslan) wheat is a great success there. They commenced harvesting at Prince Albert to-day. Klotz is in Ottawa as one of the Board of Examiners of the Dominion land surveyors now sitting in the Department of the Interior.

FRIDAY, AUG. 22, 1890.

It is our painful duty this week to chronicle the death of Col. Sproat, one of Prince Albert's leading citizens, who for the past nine years has taken a prominent part in every undertaking having for its object the advancement of our town. The bereaved family have the sincere sympathy of a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

MALEDICUS A MALEFICI NON DIFFERT NISI OCCASIONE.

It is a matter for regret that anything should be said or done, having for its object the discouragement of the active steps now being taken towards extending christian work to our Sioux Indians. That these people are entitled to every attention from our religious societies goes without saying, and those who have taken steps for providing them with civilizing influences deserve the fullest encouragement from our citizens, and we feel satisfied that when appealed to they will respond in a most liberal spirit. That opposition to such a move will come from certain quarters must be expected. People who, for gold, renounce a connection of years, will not readily allow themselves to see the wisdom of expending money on missionary efforts within our district, even though for years they have advocated our expending large sums in a foreign country for the same purpose, neither can the young people of St. Paul's expect that their philanthropic efforts will receive support from those who have not hesitated in using the most violent language for condemning the action of controlling institutions of the Church. But such opposition should not deter them. The citizens of Prince Albert, the statement of The Saskatchewan to the contrary, notwithstanding, are a liberal people and have ever shown a disposition to help church work regardless of denomination. That such has been the case can easily be shown, and if failures have occurred in carrying out a religious movement, reasonable explanations can be given which will account for the absence of public support.

Sir John A. Macdonald's government is crumbling in its decay. The National policy is doomed. Such is the opinion of the now erratic manager and editor of our River Street friend. No economic arguments have been advanced, why so dire a calamity must so soon overtake our country, but then such arguments were never considered of much importance by the gentleman who so recently undertook the study of Dominion politics. His opinions, are apparently founded on those submitted a few weeks ago by our late Crown Timber agent, but now anti-national policy correspondent, and taking too much for granted, he has fallen into the mistake, usual to such people, and given expression to opinions without any apparent knowledge of our circumstances, and a column and a half closes with the awful announcement at the head of this article. The N.P. is too heavy for you Doctor, try something easy, say a short article on crooked proceedings in high places, chestnuts or small dogs.

Those reports, financial statements, etc. etc., presented to our town's only joint stock company have not yet been published by the general manager.

The Town Council have accepted our suggestion. Prompt action has been taken and the driving of the last spike of our railroad will be properly celebrated.

We trust the School Board will display commendable activity in carrying out our suggestion of last week. The estimated receipts and expenditures in connection with the School district should be published. Let the public know what you're doing, gentlemen. Prompt action is demanded by the taxpayers.

THE DOMINION ILLUSTRATED.

The latest issue of this fine pictorial paper has some features of special interest to all Canadians. As usual, the honors are divided—east and west and centre being all represented, either by portraits or by scenery. Of the former there are four—Lieut-Governor Daly, of Nova Scotia, son of the late Sir Dominick Daly, and late Deputy Speaker of the House of Commons; the Rev. Arthur J. Lockhart, the poet and essayist; the late R. H. Hay, Esq., of Toronto, and Rev. C. J. S. Bethune, Head Master of Trinity College School, Port Hope. Of this last institution there are some handsome illustrations. The aboriginals of Canada are exemplified by three distinct types—the Ojibway of Lake Superior, the Haidas, of Queen Charlotte Islands, and the Salish of Southern British Columbia. The bountifulness of the Lake St. John region is set forth by two typical views—one showing a fine wheat field at St. Felicien, Niagara, always in season, is beautifully depicted. Altogether, in variety, interest and excellence, the illustrations of this number equal those of any preceding issues. The letter press pertaining to the illustrations is exceptionally full and instructive. Address: The Dominion Illustrated, 73 St. James street, Montreal.
